RE: Nupson v. Schnader Harrison Segal & Lewis LLP et al., No. 2:18-cv-02505-NIQA

Dear Ben:

Enclosed, please find a revised privilege log, (the “Revised Log”) which Defendants have revised and supplemented in line with the Court’s April 7, 2021 order (the “Order”) [ECF 195]. The Order states, in pertinent part that:

2. Defendants shall revise their privilege log (ECF No. 102-23) with an additional field describing each document in sufficient detail to determine whether the claimed privileges, or an exception thereto, apply.
3. Defendants shall also revise their privilege log to withdraw all assertions of the work-product doctrine for documents created prior to June 5, 2014.
4. Defendants shall produce any documents created prior to that date that it withheld solely on the basis of the work-product doctrine.

[ECF 195.]

At the request of John Middleton and Anna Nupson, and with the expectation that they would share the expense, Schnader distributed 31,000+ electronic documents to counsel for the parties in February 2017 so each could respond to the other’s requests for production of documents in the Orphans’ Court litigation between them, and their counsel could determine whether to withhold any responsive documents on the basis of privilege. Therefore, Schnader produced all ESI in its possession regardless of whether it was relevant to any issue in the Orphans’ Court litigation or responsive to either side’s requests for production. Schnader reasonably determined that any documents created after December 31, 2013 – when counsel for

Ms. Nupson sought production of Schnader's files as counsel for Ms. Nupson – as the appropriate date for commencement of the exception to the fiduciary exception, a conclusion substantiated by the letters dated May 19, 2014 and June 5, 2014, in which counsel for Ms. Nupson threatened to bring a malpractice action against Schnader.

Schnader did not intend to prepare a privilege log in connection with its distribution of the ESI because it was not asserting any privilege on behalf of either Mr. Middleton or Ms. Nupson. Nevertheless, Ms. Nupson's then counsel insisted that Schnader prepare a privilege log, which largely concerns internal Schnader documents. The overwhelming majority – if not all - of the documents listed have nothing to do with any issue in the current lawsuit.

In accordance with the Order, Schnader submits the enclosed Revised Log and documents, using May 19, 2014, as the date on which it was clear that Mr. Rosenfield was seeking advice of counsel in the context of a threatened lawsuit against him. The applicable documents will be sent electronically under separate cover.

Sincerely,
